

Roles and Responsibilities Document for Astronomy Club - VIT Stellar

1. Chairperson

Summary: The Chairperson leads the club, oversees all activities, and ensures that the club's mission is fulfilled.

Responsibilities:

- Preside over meetings and ensure effective communication among members.
 - Set the agenda for club meetings and events.
 - Represent the club in official functions and meetings.
 - Coordinate with other board members to ensure smooth operations.
 - Lead strategic planning and decision-making processes.
-

2. Vice Chairperson

Summary: The Vice Chairperson supports the Chairperson and assumes their duties in their absence.

Responsibilities:

- Assist the Chairperson in planning and executing club events.
 - Step in as acting Chairperson when needed.
 - Help coordinate member engagement initiatives.
 - Support other board members with their responsibilities as needed.
 - Facilitate communication between different committees within the club.
-

3. Secretary

Summary: The Secretary manages documentation, communication, and administrative tasks within the club.

Responsibilities:

- Maintain accurate records of club activities and membership.
 - Handle correspondence on behalf of the club (DSW).
 - Organize and manage files, including meeting agendas and reports.
 - Assist in scheduling meetings and events.
-

4. Co-Secretary

Summary: The Co-Secretary assists the Secretary in managing documentation and administrative tasks.

Responsibilities:

- Help record minutes during meetings and ensure they are accurately documented.
 - Maintain EXC course details and records
 - Support event planning (DSW) by organizing necessary documentation.
 - Take on Secretary duties when the primary Secretary is unavailable.
-

5. Technical Head

Summary: The Technical Head oversees all technical aspects of club projects, including equipment management.

Responsibilities:

- Manage technical equipment used during events (telescopes, computers).
 - Provide technical support during club meetings and events.
 - Stay updated on new technologies related to astronomy.
 - Organize workshops or training sessions on technical skills for members.
 - Keep the club website up to date with recent news (icw editorial & events).
-

6. Design Head

Summary: The Design Head is responsible for all visual elements related to the club's branding and events.

Responsibilities:

- Create promotional materials (posters, flyers, social media graphics).
 - Design presentations for meetings or events.
 - Ensure consistent branding across all club materials.
 - Oversee any design-related projects or initiatives within the club.
-

7. Publicity Head

Summary: The Publicity Head manages outreach efforts to promote club activities and increase membership.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement publicity strategies for events.
 - Manage social media accounts and engage with followers.
 - Track publicity effectiveness through engagement metrics.
-

8. Editorial Head

Summary: The Editorial Head oversees all written content produced by the club, including newsletters or articles.

Responsibilities:

- Edit and proofread written materials before publication.
 - Coordinate contributions from other members for newsletters or blogs.
 - Maintain a regular publication schedule for newsletters or updates.
 - Ensure that events align with the club's mission and values.
 - Maintain event reports and summaries for all events conducted in the tenure.
-

9. Events & Management Head

Summary: This position is responsible for planning, organizing, and executing club events successfully.

Responsibilities:

- Plan annual events such as star parties, workshops, or guest lectures.
 - Coordinate logistics (venue booking, equipment) for events.
 - Collaborate with other heads to ensure event success (publicity, technical support).
 - Manage event budgets and resources effectively.
 - Evaluate event outcomes to improve future programming.
-

10. Finance Head

Summary: The Finance Head manages the club's budget, funding, and financial records.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare an annual budget proposal for the club's activities.
 - Monitor expenses and ensure adherence to budget guidelines.
 - Manage sponsorships to support club events (gravitas, riviera).
 - Keep accurate financial records of all transactions.
-